To

The Principal
All Polytechnics including Pharmacy Institutes

Subject: Re-scheduling of May-2013 examination

Sir/Madam

I have been directed to inform you that on account of Zila Parishad elections in Punjab the examinations which were scheduled to start from 10th May 2013 will now be held from 22nd May 2013. The revised Date-sheet of the examinations will be available on the Board's website from 8th May 2013.

Since the rationalisation process has been completed in the Polytechnic colleges and likely to be completed in the Pharmacy colleges, the vacant period till the start of the examinations may be treated as preparatory holidays or may be utilized for conducting extra classes to make up for shortage of attendance, if any.

The roll numbers and the attendance shall be sent to the institute through email in due course of time.

This may be brought to the notice of all concerned.
