The Principals
All Polytechnics Colleges

Subject : Regarding : Online Practical Marks entry

Sir/Madam

All the institutes are hereby directed to enter the practical Marks data online from this examination (i.e. May 2009). The online data supplied by the institutes only will be used for the purpose of compilation of the results. The result of those institutes will get delayed who will not supply the data through online software in time.

Institutes please note that following data is to be submitted in the office of the Board:

- 1) Hard copy of attendance and award lists of Practical Exam May, 2009 duly signed by External and Internal Examiners.
- 2) Printouts of Online Practical Marks signed by Coordinators appointed by Institutes and either by Principal of the Institute or Head of Departments.
- 3) Institutes should complete online submission of practical awards at the earliest for all semesters, make data final by locking the same and send a confirmation to Board's email address (registrar@punjabteched.com) that entry has been finished and locked from the end of Institutes so that data may be picked up for final crosschecking and compilation of results at the earliest.
- 4) Online entry for practicals of 6th semester should be done at the earliest so that results of 6th semester are declared without any delay.

All Institutes have to submit practical data through online data entry only.

To register yourself for online submission of practicals visit the following link and follow the steps as mentioned on that page.

www.punjabteched.net/prdata/pmmain.htm

After successful registration, the institutes should enter their data of practical marks online. It is must for all the institutes to supply the practical data online at the earliest.

Those institutes who have registered successfully and have started entering the data are also directed to visit their official e-mail address (as mentioned in the registration letter) regularly for any latest information or update on same.

Since the results of the 6th semester needs to be declared on priority, practical marks of the 6th semester may be sent immediately through online.
